

Join the team and be at the forefront of European media and content for, with, and by youth

- Journalists, media makers, and content creators connected across borders
- Experienced professionals
- Aspiring professionals (18-24 years old and complete PulseZ training)
- Community contributors (create quality content and complete at least one PulseZ training module)
- Experts and audience are involved in the participatory content production

Tell the stories through variety of formats, get new skills and broaden your portfolio

Daily content - every day we publish media pieces on current affairs and specific topics according to the weekly schedule. It's news articles, opinion articles, commentaries, short videos.

Special Editions - PulseZ journalists also create additional content that requires more production time - such as analyses, interviews, long reads, investigations, portraits.

Video and Podcast Series - published weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly they portray stories from across Europe related to a specific topic, such as inspirational stories, volunteering, connections across Europe, or interactive quizzes.

